

Your Heart

By Glenn Currier

The rhythm of your heart let it beat regularly in me the flow of your heart let me float in it
the richness of your heart let me soak in it
the sound of your heart let me intently listen the warmth of your heart let me spread it around freely the abundance of your heart let me practice it
the peace of your heart let me feel it.
